Customer Service Superstar

Sheri Tetidrick has been nominated as our Customer Service Superstar for Cloverleaf Healthcare. Sheri has worked as an LPN at Cloverleaf for 8 years. When she is working her hall is always tidy. Sheri ensures that her residents are well cared for. Ask any of our CNA's that work with Sheri, she keeps them on their toes at all times. We have had several compliments from family members with how well Sheri does with her job. They complement that she is always keeping family informed of their loved ones, she is genuinely caring for each and every one of them. Sheri does not hesitate to help anyone in need, even if it be on another hall in our facility. New equipment can be tricky to learn, Sheri helped one of our PRN nurses by training her how to work new equipment. Thank you Sheri for your hard work and genuine heart. Good Job!

Greek to Me

“Neither snow nor rain nor heat nor gloom of night stays these couriers from the swift completion of their appointed rounds.” While this saying is not the official motto of the U.S. Postal Service, many recognize this as the postal worker’s creed thanks to its inscription on the James A. Farley Post Office building in New York City, which was opened on September 7, 1914.

The famous motto comes from the classical Greek work Histories by the Greek historian Herodotus. While detailing the Persian Wars, Herodotus refers to the mounted courier service of the Persian Empire, known as the angarium. One of the architects of the Farley Post Office building was the son of a classics scholar, and he enjoyed reading Greek. When he happened upon the phrase, he decided to incorporate it into the building. Professor George Herbert Palmer of Harvard University was enlisted to translate Herodotus’ words into the motto that is so well known today.

As the World Gurns

On September 20, the Egremont Crab Fair will get underway on the West Cumbrian coast of England. This harvest festival was first held in 1267 when the Lord of the Barony of Egremont began the tradition of giving away crab apples to the village serfs. Today, the tradition continues with the Parade of the Apple Cart, where apples are thrown to crowds lining Main Street. Over the centuries, there have been many contests held during the fair: horse races, hound dog trials, singing, teacake eating, pipe smoking, wrestling, and, of course, gurning.

Gurning, which means “to snarl like a dog, look savage, or distort the countenance,” remains the highlight of the festival. During the Gurning World Championships, contestants don a horse collar, or braffin, and compete to see who can pull the ugliest facial expression.

Employee of the Month

Darla Randall is Cloverleaf's Employee of the month. Darla is one of our CNA's who has been with us for 6 years. One of her compliments was that when she is working the floor is ship shape. Residents dressed up and at em. Darla makes the residents laugh and feel comfortable in just about every situation they have to come across. One of Darla's qualities she has is her resident's appearance. You know when she is working, because her residents are dressed nice, hair pleasant and nails clean. Darla is constantly busy from call lights, to restocking rooms. Thank you for all you do for Cloverleaf Healthcare and our residents. Keep up the good work!

Janet's Cooking Corner

Box of angel food cake mix (just the contents in the box no need to follow directions on box) & combine it with a 20 ounce can of crushed pineapple in its own juice. (No need to use a mixer, just stir it by hand) When you do this, something magical happens. The mixture starts to froth & turns into an amazingly airy, fluffy bowl of deliciousness right before your eyes. Once it's all mixed up, simply pour it into a 9X13 cake pan & bake 350 for 30 minutes ENJOY!

September Birthdays

Those born between September 1–22 are Virgo's Virgins. Virgos love paying attention to details—not to be picky, but to help others. Their industriousness makes them smart problem-solvers and fact-finders. Those born between September 23–30 balance the scales of Libra. Libras epitomize fairness and balance, often striving to minimize conflict and seek compromise. They achieve this with their charming, sincere, and lovable personalities.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY!!

Tolkien's Literary Magic

Those familiar with the work of author J. R. R. Tolkien know that September 22 is Hobbit Day, commemorating the birthday of both Bilbo and his nephew Frodo Baggins. For this reason, the entire week containing September 22 is celebrated as Tolkien Week. For those unfamiliar with Tolkien's fantasy writings, the words hobbit, orc, Mordor, and Silmarillion may have no meaning at all. Tolkien, after all, invented all these fantastic words during the creation of his magical world of Middle Earth. The development of the world and legend of Middle Earth grew from Tolkien's desire to manufacture a mythology for England, one of elves and faeries. Some might say that he saw this through to extraordinary ends, going so far as to invent an entire pantheon of gods and new languages for his magical races of creatures. Bilbo's adventures with dwarves and dragons and Frodo's saga with the Ring of Power have become the pinnacle of high fantasy literature.
